

Shevet Achim

powered by  Moving Traditions

“Shevet Achim is a place where I really grew and felt comfortable being myself.”

Discover Moving Traditions' groups for teens, forming now for 2017 – 2018!

It's not easy being a teenager. Even outside of school, the pressure is on, and issues like self-esteem, competition, and relationships add to the noise. This is why real friendships and trusted mentors are important, and the values and support of Jewish community can be a positive guiding force. And this is why Moving Traditions created Shevet Achim.

Once a month, in small peer groups with trained adult mentors, teen boys bond and have open conversations in a safe space. Shevet Achim has a positive and lasting impact on teen boys, empowering them to become strong Jewish men.

We help teens grow into confident, happy, and successful young adults!
